

Reduced operating expenses

Leading pharmaceutical manufacturer

Context

Huge inventory stock due to improper planning
Inefficient inventory management process locking of cash and burden on expenditure.

Approach

Analyses of inventory management process
Assess factors for better pricing
Assessment of correlation between consumption and procurement
Identify utilization and potential salvage value of process equipment

Results

Savings of over $175K by inventory management

Auctioned off scrap equipments

Savings of over $100K by reducing consumption

Recurring benefits of over $175K

Are your operating figures worrying you?
Talk to us today: